My Pattern Map

Fill it in as we go through the weekend. A few words in each box is enough. Type here or print it out, whichever you prefer.

Name _____ My pattern _____

FRIDAY

1 What sets it off

Three moments it ran: one in love, one at work, one in my family.

2 The feeling underneath

What those three moments have in common. Not the story, the feeling.

3 My critic's exact words

“Somewhere along the way, I learned that I needed to be...”

4 Where it sits in my body

Where I feel it, and how strong, from 1 to 10.

5 What it protects me from, and what it gets me

What would have happened if I hadn't done it?

SATURDAY

6 Where it began

Seen from the doorway: how old she was, and what she decided.

Her age _____ What she decided _____

SUNDAY

7 My Declaration

One sentence, from the woman I am now to her.

8 The exact point where it can be interrupted

9 The body response that leads back to the source

What protected you then is probably limiting you now.
